RG104 E-1 Box 159

P

Treasury Department,

BUREAU OF THE MINT,

Washington, D. C., October 11, 1889.

Hon. Daniel M. Fox,
Supt. U. S. Mint,
Philadelphia, Pa.

Sir:-

On reply to an inquiry by Lewis J. Poisson of 111 Princess Street, Wilmington, N. C. as to where he could dispose of some silver bullion he had on hand, he was informed by this Bureau under date of the 30th ult. that if he would forward the same to either your mint or the mint at New Orleans it would be purchased at the rate you were authorized to pay for silver bullion on the day of its receipt at the mint. I am to-day in receipt of a communication from Mr. Poisson stating that he had forwarded the bullion to your mint and it had been returned to him because it was under one hundred dollars in value.

RG104 E-1 Box 159

As many of the small lots of silver purchased at your mint are of less value than $100. I will thank you to inform me why this Billion of Mr. Poisons was returned.

Respectfully yours

E. O. Leech

Acting Director of the Mint.

NARA RG104, Entry 1, Box 159

P

Treasury Department,
Bureau of the Mint,
Washington, D.C.,
October 11, 1889

Hon. Daniel M. Fox,
Supt. U.S. Mint,
Philadelphia, Pa.

Sir: -

In reply to an inquiry by Lewis J. Poisson of 111 Princess Street, Wilmington, N.C. as to where he could dispose of some silver bullion he had on hand, he was informed by this Bureau under date of the 30th ultimo that if he would forward the same to either your mint or the mint at New Orleans it would be purchased at the rate you were authorized to pay for silver bullion on the day of its receipt at the mint. I am to-day in receipt of a communication from Mr. Poisson stating that he had forwarded the bullion to your mint and it had been returned to him because it was under one hundred dollars in value.

As many of the small lots of silver purchased at your mint are of less value than $100. I will thank you to inform me why this bullion of Mr. Poisson's was returned.

Respectfully yours,
E.O. Leech
Acting Director of the Mint.